

DAKOTA THUNDER '09

Open House and Air Show • May 30 - 31 • Ellsworth AFB, S.D.

Dakota Thunder Prohibited Items:

Q: What can attendees bring to the air show?

A: The following items will be allowed into the airshow:

- Lawn chairs
- Sun screen
- Brimmed hats
- Sunglasses
- Cameras and video cameras
- Small purses and hand bags (all will be subject to hand search at security checkpoints)

Q: What items can't I bring?

A: For both the safety of air show attendees and the military personnel stationed at Ellsworth, attendees are asked not bring the following:

Any weapon including, but not limited to:

- Knives, razor blades and or box cutters
- Firearms
- Brass Knuckles
- Darts
- Fireworks
- Airsoft guns or similar devices

Also prohibited are:

- Coolers
- Balloons
- Duffel bags (small back-packs and or diaper bags containing child care items are allowed)
- Outside alcohol
- Pets (Service animals are allowed)
- Bicycles or scooters
- Skateboards, skates, rollerblades or Heelees
- Paint
- Water guns

Q: What can be expected at the security checkpoints?

A: All items, including purses, diaper bags, etc. will be subject to search and or x-ray at the checkpoints. Back packs, coolers and large tote bags are not allowed. Signs will be placed at each of the checkpoints reminding arriving spectators of these and other restrictions. Security officials may refuse admittance to persons attempting to bring these items to the airshow.

Q: Will strollers or wagons be allowed?

A: Yes, however, all strollers and wagons will be subject to search and or x-ray at the security checkpoints. Attendees are asked to bring only necessary items. Do not bring any large diaper bags or other large parcels.

Q: Will attendees be able to return to their car to store a restricted item?

A: Signs will be posted throughout parking lots reminding people of restricted items, however, attendees may be allowed to return the item to their car (as long as the item not illegal).

Q: I am participating in the civilian fly-in. Do these rules pertain to me?

A: Yes – civilian fly-in participants are asked not bring those items mentioned above through security. If forgotten, attendees are asked to secure the restricted item(s) in their aircraft.